EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This does not form part of the notification, but is intended to indicate the general purport).

The annuity applications are now determined by the different Land Tribunals constituted under the Kerala Land Reforms Act. It may take plenty of time for determination and cases are likely to be held up by delay with a single Land Tribunal, although the other Land Tribunals concerned may have decided their cases. Government therefore feel it necessary to constitute 7 special Land Tribunals (Munsiffs) giving them Special jurisdiction for dealing with annuity applications only. Hence the above 7 special Land Tribunals presided over by Munsiffs are constituted.
